SONGS FOR I LOVE YOU RITUALS VOL. 1

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Music: Mar. Harman

She had so many children
She knew exactly what to do.
She held them.
She rocked them.
And tucked them in bed.
“I love you, I love you,”
Is what she said.

Whew, whew, now there is none.

This Little Finger

SONGS FOR I LOVE YOU RITUALS VOL. 1

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Music: Mar. Harman

This little finger came to school in a car.
This other finger rode the bus.
This tall finger rode a bicycle.
And this one chose to walk.
This thumb lived so-o-o far away
It had to go up the hill and down.
Up the hill and down
Up the hill and down
Up the hill and around
To get all the way inside the school.

Goes cluck-cluck like a baby hen.
The next little finger on the hand
Goes toot like a big brass band.
This little finger goes tick-tock
Just like someone's kitchen clock.
This little finger points to you
And says "I love you, yes I do."
This last little finger goes night-night.
I will kiss her (him) and she (he) will sleep tight.

We can put them together,
Matching yours, matching yours and mine.

Because it's getting late!
Is everyone here and nestled in?
No, there is one to come.
Move over everyone,
Here comes the thumb.
